

CAMPING ASSISTANT

We are currently looking for a camping assistant to join our team. We offer the opportunity to be part of one of the friendliest campsites in Ireland.

We are looking for a flexible, friendly person with good communication skills. Basic English is a must, and any other language would be beneficial.

The role involves cleaning and maintaining the holiday accommodation and campsite facilities, welcoming the guests, and help out with any other duties that may be required.

At Beara Camping, we are proud to provide great customer care and the high standards of cleanliness both inside and outside of our accommodation.

We offer an unpaid work position for half-board and accommodation in a mobile home (includes cooking facilities & Wifi). Free use of our laundry facility, excellent holiday discounts for immediate family members, and full training and support from the company owners.

The company owners will provide onsite training, and pass on over 30 years of knowledge and experience.

The holiday season at Beara Camping runs from April until September.

If you are interested in this role, please apply by sending your CV and cover letter to info@bearacamping.com
